

2019 Northeast Area Women and Girls Fund Grants

Organization Name	Program/Project Description	Awarded
Empower women and girls to make positive decisions
The Arc Eastern Connecticut	"Voices" Empowerment Group for Women with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities teaches them about healthy behaviors and how to develop good decision-making skills to prevent abuse and exploitation.	$2,500
Girl Scouts of Connecticut	2020 Campership Program for girls from Northeast CT with limited family financial means to be able to attend summer camp.	$750
Northeast Opportunities for Wellness	NOW Scholarships for NECT girls to participate in various sports activities	$300
Nutmeg Big Brothers Big Sisters	Site-Based Mentoring of girls at Putnam Elementary School by UConn students during the school year	$1,500
Windham-Tolland 4-H Camp	Windham-Tolland 4-H Camp Campership Fund for girls from Northeast CT with limited family financial means to be able to attend camp.	$750
Promote healthy relationships and prevent domestic violence
United Services	Preventing Domestic Violence and Promoting Healthy Relationships programming for youth and others through Northeast CT schools and community providers.	$2,500
Advance family economic security
Community Health Resources	Basic needs support such as diapers and child car seats for women coming out of CHR's intensive mental health and substance use disorders treatment program, Project THRIVE (Training, Health, Resilience, Independence, Vocation. Education).	$2,000
Connecticut Legal Services	Consumer Assistance offered to lower-income elderly women who fall prey to financial abuse or have other barriers to financial security.	$2,500
Interfaith Human Services of Putnam	Pathways 2 Success offers support services for economically insecure women enrolled in short-term certificate programs at QVCC.	$2,000
Support access to women's health, mental health and reproductive health services
Planned Parenthood of Southern New England	Windham County Fund For Access to support health services for low-income women in Northeast Connecticut (Funded by the Stephen W. Larcen &amp; Susan Graham Fund)	$1,595
TEEG	Extending the Reach provides mentoring for middle and high school-aged females who have been identified as at-risk.	$2,400
11 Total Grants		$18,795

Note: The Northeast W&G Fund also contributed to the CWEALF (Connecticut Women's Education and Legal Fund) grant, which was made through the Southeast W&G Fund on behalf of the Women & Girls Fund Task Force on Public Policy.